FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jennifer Schleman
jschleman@nhcouncil.org

National Health Council Announces CEO Search Firm

WASHINGTON, DC, Sept. 11, 2020 – The National Health Council (NHC) is launching a search for a Chief Executive Officer to replace Marc Boutin, JD, NHC’s current CEO.

The NHC Search Committee has retained a national firm, The Alexander Group, to lead this pivotal search. Any interested candidates or those seeking to make referrals should send their resume or recommendation to:

Jane S. Howze
Managing Director
The Alexander Group
jhowze@thealexandergroup.com

The Chief Executive Officer will serve as the NHC’s strategic and operational leader and public face of patient advocacy. He or she will both help develop and ensure that NHC’s strategic plan is carried out as envisioned and approved by the NHC Board of Directors and proactively seek ways that the NHC can expand its reach and capitalize upon the organization’s stellar standing in the health care community. The Chief Executive Officer will work collaboratively to build strong working relationships with NHC members and direct an efficient, impactful, and effective organization.

###

Created by and for patient organizations 100 years ago, the National Health Council (NHC) brings diverse organizations together to forge consensus and drive patient-centered health policy. We promote increased access to affordable, high-value, sustainable health care. Made up of more than 140 national health-related organizations and businesses, the NHC’s core membership includes the nation’s leading patient organizations. Other members include health-related associations and nonprofit organizations including the provider, research, and family caregiver communities; and businesses representing biopharmaceutical, device, diagnostic, generic drug, and payer organizations. Learn more at: