

NHC Member Benefits

The National Health Council (NHC) offers a variety of benefits that provide opportunities for our members to engage with NHC staff experts and other members, access professional development, and increase the visibility of your organization's efforts.

For more information on member benefits, contact the NHC Membership Team at membership@nhcouncil.org.

Build Your Network: Expand your network with the broader health community through participation in our conferences, action teams, affinity groups, online community, and ad-hoc briefings. Opportunities include:

- Five Annual Events:
 - Health Leadership Conference
 - Science of Patient Engagement Symposium
 - Washington Representatives Summer Meeting
 - Washington Representatives Retreat
 - Annual Membership Meeting and Luncheon
- Monthly Government Relations Action Team meetings, which serve as the central forum for NHC policy and government relations professionals to get updates on and provide input into the full array of patient-related policy issues on which the NHC and its members are focused.
- Affinity Groups for:
 - Artificial Intelligence (AI)
 - Chief Executive Officers
 - Chief Financial Officers
 - Communications Professionals
 - Chief Scientific/Medical/Research Officers
 - Health Equity Professionals
 - Event Professionals
- NHC Connect, an online community where members can access information and resources and directly collaborate with each other around areas of common interest, challenges, and opportunities. NHC Connect offers space for all members and dedicated communities for AI, CFOs, Health Equity, Policy, Programs and Patient Engagement, and more.

Increase Visibility: Enhance your organization's public profile and outreach by:

- Submitting content for the NHC's weekly member newsletter, NHC Insider
- Highlighting your organization and activities via a guest post on the NHC Putting Patients First blog
- Promoting job openings at your organization on the NHC Job Bank

Access Educational and Programming Resources: The NHC has created an online Center of Educational Excellence, to help patients and patient advocates understand complex topics related to patient centricity in health care. These training and informational modules, tools, and webinar series include:

- Patient Experience Mapping Toolbox
- Fair-Market Value Calculator
- Blueprint for Developing Patient-Centered Core Impact Sets

Access to Policy and Issue Resources: The NHC provides access to policy resources and expertise on a broad range of complex issues that impact all people with chronic conditions. View our 2025 policy priorities here.

The NHC strives to share relevant policy work such as comment letters, working documents on policy positions, and white papers with its members well ahead of deadlines. This allows member organizations to utilize our materials to inform their own policy positions and responses.

Strengthen Internal Operations: Expand knowledge on current issues facing the nonprofit sector, such as changes in charity rating systems, innovative fundraising strategies, relationships with the for-profit sector, and tax policy related to charitable giving. Each year the NHC conducts two important surveys incorporating data from our members into reports on Management Compensation and Annual Revenue.

Navigate the Impact of Artificial Intelligence on Health Care: PXi: Patient Experience + Innovation, the NHC's Center for Patient Partnership in Health AI & Technology, is a new resource to support patient-informed, business-centric health AI development and use.

Earn Certified Association Executive (CAE) credits: The NHC is a CAE Approved Provider for the American Society of Association Executives \(ASAE\). In-person NHC events meet the conditions for fulfilling the professional development requirements to earn or maintain the CAE credential.

Reserve Meetings and Office Space: We invite our members to reserve the NHC's conference rooms at 1730 M St NW, Suite 650 in Washington, DC when you travel to or host meetings in the DC metropolitan area.

NHC CORPORATE HOTEL RATES: The NHC is pleased to offer its members the opportunity to take advantage of NHC corporate hotel rates at nearby hotels in Washington, DC. The following six hotels are offering the NHC's corporate rates:
