

NATIONAL HEALTH COUNCIL

2026 Science of Patient Engagement Summit

OVERVIEW

The National Health Council (NHC) Science of Patient Engagement Summit is a two-day meeting held annually to explore how the science of patient engagement is evolving and contributing new evidence. Research leaders share - with a broad scientific audience - their experiences, accomplishments, best practices, and resulting impacts on medicine and science regarding patient centrality. The Summit will be held in Arlington, VA on May 11-12, 2026. This year's theme is Turning Evidence Into Impact.

ATTENDEES

In 2025, the Summit brought together more than 180 leaders from patient organizations, non-profit groups, industry, academia, and government. NHC patient organization and partners of patient organization members can send multiple attendees. All NHC business and industry members receive one Summit registration as a member benefit. Sponsorship is required for additional industry attendees. Non-member industry organizations can attend through sponsorship.
